Dear Sachem Youth Sports,

In this time of war, few things are more vital than reaching out to America's wounded troops as you did with your generous gift of $7,500.00 in honor of Cpl. Christopher Levy.

For these troops, many of them young adults, your patriotic kindness means a hand up as they begin new lives after severe injuries and trauma. As a partner in the Wounded Warrior Project mission to honor and empower wounded warriors, you help these men and women move back into the mainstream of the great American life they protected for you and me.

As soon as wounded warriors leave the war zone and arrive at a hospital, you're at their bedsides hand-in-hand with WWP. Through a broad spectrum of WWP programs, you stay with the wounded throughout recovery. Many people use the phrase, "Support the Troops," but you put those words into action as combat-injured troops work to build new lives.

Imagine a warrior who sacrificed limbs or sight in Iraq or Afghanistan now skiing down the side of a mountain, starting college, helping a fellow warrior, or beginning a new job! Expressing the power of your recent gift to WWP, those images come to my mind as I offer my gratitude to you today. You have my deepest appreciation.

Saluting Your Generosity,

Adam Silva
Chief Development Officer

The full amount of your gift is tax-deductible under the Internal Revenue Code since the Wounded Warrior Project, a nonprofit organization under Section 501(c)(3), provided no goods or services of value to you in consideration of your contribution. We recommend you retain this letter as a receipt for your gift.
